'Santa's Wisdom: A Treasure Trove of Hints for Happiness & Wellbeing from Father Christmas'
www.santaschool.co.uk

Dreams of Snow & Christmas.

Fast flowing rivers in winter,
edged with crusted snow & ice,
the day white to the horizon.
That is the North.

The noise of water, gurgling & crackling,
snapping through the landscape,
seeking out the cold oceans,
rippling its sinuous muscles.

The sound muffled finally
by the silk confetti of snow,
that falls silently & endlessly,
always a surprise,
to confuse our senses.

Ssshh whispers the snow.

I am your winter blanket, your dream of Christmas.

Santa's Wisdom will be available to share in winter 2012.
